

Holistic and Integrative Energy

Saturday March 21, through Monday March 23, 2009

Location to be announced some where in Englewood New Jersey

Times: 9:30 til 6:30 daily

Goals of the Course

- ❖ Learn to palpate the bio-electric fields of the musculoskeletal system, neurological system, and fascial system in addition to the endocrine system of the human body.
- ❖ Understand how balancing the bio-electric fields of the human body can increase range of motion, increase function and mobility, while decreasing pain during activities of daily living.
- ❖ Understand the construction and mechanisms of the bio-electric fields of the human body that prevent it from getting better.
- ❖ Learn that a balanced system is the essence of good health.
- ❖ Explore the difference between curing and healing and how to facilitate the body's innate ability to heal.
- ❖ Learn why some people respond to well-documented treatment protocols while others do not.
- ❖ Find the area of dysfunction in the bio-electric field, treat it, and develop a treatment protocol that will be efficient, long-lasting, and possibly permanent.
- ❖ Be introduced to new innovative exercise programs to enhance your patient's life

Instructor Background

- ❖ The course is taught by Bernadette Bloom; P.T. Bernadette became a licensed physical therapist in 1977. For the past 20 years she has been studying with osteopathic physicians.
