Come on an exciting adventure into the world of Energetic Vibrational Living and Healing! Learn to bring balance and ease to the body, mind, and spirit via the electromagnetic field also called the aura. This class will be geared to the needs of those that come (lay person, professional or medical). The intended audience is all people who are interested in becoming empowered using the holistic model in their life and health. That would be YOU!!!! During this course you will:

- * One of the focuses of the class will be how to support and strengthen the immune system
